

MICRO GROUP GUIDE

WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely, I am with you always, to the very end of the age." - MATTHEW 28:18-20 (NIV)

These were Jesus' final words to His disciples. He spent three years laying the groundwork, and He ultimately passed along to His church the greatest of missions. It's commonly referred to as the Great Commission. This is our goal: "To obey Jesus' commands, in order to grow into disciples who will make more disciples." This is what you get to be a part of!

Thanks for saying "yes" to enter into this Micro Group process. One thing that makes this space unique is that the groups are small and gender-specific, with 4-5 people in total.

Another thing that makes it unique is the focus. You may have been involved in other groups in the past, with typical rhythms of sharing life together each week. This isn't that type of group. You'll share life to some degree, but the primary thrust of your Micro Group will be learning to listen to what God is saying and what you need to do to obey Him. While you'll find the process to be structured at a base level, it's ultimately designed to be Spirit-led.

As you begin, we want you to know about the Micro Groups webpage, where you can download additional copies of this guide, watch videos to help you get started, and find answers to frequently asked questions. Click on this link to take you there <https://tpcc.org/microgroups>.

One guarantee we'll make if you engage and follow through with this process, you will grow! However, like all things that are worth doing, there's a cost. In many cases, it will be wise to consider what you have to say "no" to so you can say "yes" to this. You'll need to prioritize your schedule and face the tension of saying "no" to things that will vie for this time along the way.

You'll have to commit to spiritual rhythms that work for you. You'll be held accountable to take action and follow through each week. You'll likely see an uptick in spiritual warfare as our enemy doesn't want you to become more like Jesus and replicate yourself. But even as you navigate all this, the journey will be so worth it because God is with you and is doing the transforming work within you.

All Micro Groups are built on the same four pillars that are designed to help us stay focused and aligned.

1. Transparent Relationships
2. Obedience to God's Word
3. High Accountability
4. Multiplying Disciple Makers

As you journey over these months together, these four pillars will be primary goals, and Scripture will be the guide. Through these groups, you'll not only learn to read and study the Bible but also understand it and apply it to your life.

Reading God's Word isn't simply about gaining information but experiencing life-transformation.

Of course, any of us can read the Bible on our own, but there's something special that happens when we read and apply it together. There's shared wisdom, accountability, encouragement, and growth you wouldn't see otherwise. We need each other!

So dive in, give it everything you've got, and see what God does in and through you. Know that we're praying for you as you do.

Making disciples with you,

THE TRADERS POINT GROUPS TEAM

TRADERS POINT MICRO GROUP COMMITMENT

Because Micro Groups grow and thrive around these following four pillars, you're asked to commit to the following guidelines.

Group Commitment

1. TRANSPARENT RELATIONSHIPS:

To create a safe group environment where members can openly speak from their hearts and know that everything will be kept confidential.

2. OBEDIENCE TO GOD'S WORD:

To fully participate in the plan to study the designated chapter(s) of the Bible using the POST inductive study method, and to grow together in our understanding, knowledge, and transformational obedience to Scripture.

3. HIGH ACCOUNTABILITY:

To prioritize attending each meeting on time and to encourage and pray for one another. To hold each other accountable for our spiritual growth by equipping and challenging one another.

4. MULTIPLYING DISCIPLE MAKERS:

Upon completion of the Micro Group, to lead a new Micro Group, creating the same environment for 3-4 other people in our lives.

Group Meetings

1. We will meet every week on

(day of week: _____) at (time of day: _____) for (select between 1 to 1.5 hours: _____).

Note: Groups of 5 meet longer than 1 hour. Also, if the group is unable to meet in person, make every effort to still meet virtually or by text check-in.*

2. We will follow the weekly meeting guide and six-month roadmap.

3. We will review our commitment statements weekly from the Take Action step to hold each other accountable.

4. We will pray regularly as a group about who we can each invite into our own Micro Group.

I have been prayerful about committing to be a member of this group and agree to each of the guidelines above.

HOW WE'LL STUDY THE BIBLE

We'll use an inductive format to study three books of the Bible during our time in the Micro Group. Inductive Bible study involves three overarching steps:

- 1. Observation – What does the passage say?
- 2. Interpretation – What does the passage mean?
- 3. Application – What does it mean for me specifically?

There are lots of different inductive study methods. We'll use one that follows the acronym POST. We'll explain this method on the next page and have prepared a video titled " How we Study God's Word" on our Micro Group webpage at <https://tpcc.org/microgroups>. Here are a few things to keep in mind before you get started.

First, this is a structure you can shift to work best for you. For example, you may want to break up your study time into smaller sessions each day, or you may want to do it all in one sitting. You may find one step more helpful and prefer to spend more time there. We're going to give you suggestions for each step, but you have freedom within them.

Second, this may seem a bit overwhelming at first, but stick with it. Anything worth doing is worth doing poorly at the beginning. With practice and perseverance, you'll gain confidence in studying your Bible and will grow as a disciple of Jesus.

Finally, remember we are not saved by our works. We're justified freely by God's grace alone through Jesus (Ephesians 2:8-9). The Holy Spirit lives in every believer, and He does the transforming work of growing us into the image of Jesus. When we abide in Him, He'll bear fruit through us (John 15). The processes and steps you'll follow in this guide are meant to lead you toward that.

USING THE POST STUDY METHOD

STEP 1: PRAY AND PREPARE

Before you start, pray.

We often open our Bibles with an agenda to find something specific. Busy schedules and to-do lists are a major distraction to hearing God speak through His Word. In prayer, we refocus our hearts and minds on God, asking Him to help us hear what He's saying.

We're not pursuing mere knowledge; we're pursuing God Himself. Always start with prayer.

The next step before you jump into a new book of the Bible is preparatory work. The Bible is a book about God, and from beginning to end, it tells one unified story of His rescuing work of humanity. This is called the metanarrative of Scripture, where each of the 66 books contributes to an overarching story of creation, fall, redemption, and restoration. Knowing how a particular book of the Bible fits into this overarching story is important to keep in mind.

The Bible is also a library of books written over 2,000 years ago by men who were inspired and directed by the Holy Spirit. Therefore, we need to do something called exegesis, another churchy word that simply means digging to find the original author's intent for the original audience. A passage of Scripture can't mean for us today what it didn't mean for the original audience.

Start each new book of the Bible looking for the genre (literary style) of the book, author, date written, purpose in writing, and key themes. We highly recommend watching Bible Project's "Intro to the Bible" videos before you start anything in this guide. Also see our resources list on page 32 of this guide for tools that will help you with this preparation step.

STEP 2: OBSERVE

Before we can know what a passage means and apply it, we need to first know what it says. Without this step, we risk interpreting wrongly, so take your time with this! Being thorough here makes Steps 3 and 4 a lot easier. Below are our suggestions for making good observations. Note that this is not a checklist of requirements to complete in your study. Think of it as a menu of options, and choose the ones that work well for you.

- Outline. The subtitles and paragraph breaks you see in your Bible weren't part of the original manuscripts of Scripture. They were added by publishers as a helpful tool for today's reader, which means they vary between Bibles. For this step, read the entire chapter and break it into sections that make the most sense to you. Outlining will cause you to naturally make observations you may have missed on a first reading.
- Play "I Spy" with the chapter.
 - Go through the chapter and underline or circle repeated words and phrases. Repetition is usually an indicator of something important.
 - Look for answers to who, what, where, when, and why.
 - Look for connection words like but, if, therefore, etc. They can help you see important comparisons, contrasts, and connections.
 - Look for cultural and historical ideas, things that may be rooted in the culture at the time of the writing.
- Write down questions that you come up with as you study.
- Make bulleted lists, paraphrase, or summarize what you observe by creating your own title for the passage.

STEP 3: SEEK OUT

Now it's time to dig a little further using commentaries, other Bible translations, and/or notes from your study Bible. These are great tools to seek answers to your questions, expand connections you've made, and affirm (or correct!) your observations. We recommend reading a passage in at least three translations: NLT, ESV, and the Message.

Visit our recommended resource page (p. 32) for commentary suggestions. Remember to save this step for last. Commentaries and study Bible footnotes are still written by humans, albeit pretty smart ones.

STEP 4: TAKE ACTION

By now, you should be able to answer the first two questions from inductive study: what does the passage say, and what does it mean? It's now time to move to application and answer the question, "What do I need to do to obey?"

Over and over in Scripture we see the importance of knowing and doing. Jesus summarized His famous Sermon on the Mount with a final illustration, concluding that those who hear His words and put them into practice are like the wise builder who built his life on a solid foundation (Matthew 7:24-27). Therefore, each week we'll ask you the same three application questions:

- 1. What does this passage teach me about God and following Him?
- 2. What is God saying to me as I read His Word and listen to His voice?
- 3. What do I need to do to obey Him?

Finally, we want you to make a commitment statement each week based on what you've heard God say through your study time, prayer, and discernment. A few things to note on this:

- Your commitment doesn't have to be new each week. It might be something you sense God asking you to continue doing from the previous week, or perhaps build onto the previous week's commitment.
- Your commitment doesn't always have to tie directly to the Scripture you read this week. The most important thing is learning to listen to what God is saying to you and then putting it into practice.
- Try to make this statement as practical and tangible as possible. We recommend starting with "I will" and giving it a timeframe. Your group will check in on these with you each week. (For example: "I will ask forgiveness of a person I've wronged," "I will spend one hour this Monday morning in prayer," or "I will pray for an opportunity this week to share my testimony with someone.")

Growing as a disciple often requires getting out of our comfort zone, which is why we've also provided training experiences to equip you to take steps of growth. Additionally, we want to encourage you to take time in group to practice your action steps when applicable. Sharing your testimony within the safety of your group, for example, can help better prepare you for sharing later that week in the world.

Remember, the end goal of your study of God's Word isn't to have 26 weeks of checkmarks. It's to build a habit of listening and obeying that leads to transformation! In doing so, you become more like Jesus and fulfill His Great Commission.

POST EXAMPLE

We suggest using your own notebook or taking digital notes for your study time. This example is provided for quick reference for you.

STEP 1: PRAY AND PREPARE

Invite the Holy Spirit into your time, asking Him to teach you and speak to your heart. Turn over anything that may be distracting you.

Before starting the next step, take a few minutes to prepare. If you're starting a new book of the Bible, follow the suggestions listed for this step in the "How We'll Study the Bible" section. You can also watch the bibleproject.com video overview of the book. Read or listen to the whole book if you'd like.

STEP 2: OBSERVE

Read your chapter of Scripture multiple times for comprehension. Follow the suggestions listed for this step in the "How We'll Study the Bible" section.

STEP 3: SEEK OUT

Now read other translations, commentaries, and/or study Bible notes to check your work, gain further insight, and answer any remaining questions from Step 2.

STEP 4: TAKE ACTION

1. What does this passage teach me about God and following Him?

2. What is God saying to me as I read His Word and listen to His voice?

3. What do I need to do to obey Him? (Make a tangible and practical commitment.)

I will...

WEEKLY MEETING GUIDE

This is your go-to meeting guide for most weeks (refer to the “Six-Month Roadmap”). Note on meeting length: Groups of five should meet for longer than 1 hour. Adapt the times below accordingly.

Print this sheet and keep it handy for each meeting.*

REVIEW AND VISION (20-30 MINUTES)

- Ask someone to start with prayer.
- Review the week.
 - Share a “High” and/or “Low” from your week.
 - How were your weekly rhythms of prayer and Bible study, and did you follow through on your action step?
 - How have you lived out the Great Commission this week through obeying, teaching, or sharing your testimony/the gospel?
- Review the vision for your Micro Group: To obey Jesus' commands, in order to grow into disciples who will make more disciples.
 - As part of vision casting, periodically read one of the following passages out loud to the group and briefly discuss: Matthew 28:18-20; Acts 1:8; 2 Timothy 2:2; Matthew 9:35-38; 1 Corinthians 9:19-23.

 - In your own words, share a title that summarizes what you read.
 - Share observations, discoveries, and questions.
 - Share what you learned about God.

RESPOND (20-30 MINUTES)

- Focus on the “T” (Take Action). Pray as a group, asking God to show you what He’s saying and what you need to do to obey. Then spend 2-3 minutes in silent prayer and reflection.
- Share what you believe He's asking you to do next. Keep it as simple and practical as possible, using “I will” statements as a framework. All Members: Record each member’s action step and pray for them throughout the week.
- When applicable, practice! Spend a few minutes in pairs or as a group practicing action steps (i.e., rehearse a difficult conversation, share your testimony, teach someone what you’ve learned, etc.).
- Someone pray for the group as you work to obey this week.

SIX-MONTH ROADMAP

As you navigate these six months, we've mapped out 26 weeks as a guide. For your first time leading a Micro Group, we recommend starting with the books outlined below: Ephesians, your choice of Ruth or Jonah, and Mark. This allows you to study an epistle, an Old Testament narrative, and a gospel.

In future Micro Groups, you may want to repeat these three books again or consider the additional roadmaps found on page 30.

WEEK 1

*Use the following guide for Week 1 instead of the Weekly Meeting Guide. As you prepare for week 1, we recommend finding a time for your group to meet and get to know each other better before jumping into your Micro Group.

- What is this group and why are we here?
 - This is a group that's highly committed to grow to be like Jesus and to make disciples who will make disciples.
 - Our vision statement is: To obey Jesus' commands, in order to grow into disciples who will make more disciples.

UP | IN | OUT GUIDE

Theological Framework

UP | IN | OUT is a framework lived out in the life of Jesus that can help us look more like Him and evaluate our own spiritual growth as His disciples.

There are many places in Scripture where we see this lived out. One is Luke 6:12-19 (*read this together in your group). In just a few verses, we see how all three of these dimensions were at work and prioritized in Jesus' life. You could also call these His three great loves. "UP" - the Father, "IN" - His disciples, "OUT" - the world.

UP

In verse 12, Jesus started with His most important relationship, His Father. This vertical relationship was never neglected and always fought for. He spent all night on a mountain praying and connecting with His Father so He would hear Him and do His will.

IN

In verses 13-16, Jesus then called His 12 disciples from groups of many. These were men He gave more access to His life, provided more training for, and invested in. These relationships reflect the "IN" dimension of Jesus' life. He prioritized making disciples who would go and do the same. Among the 12, He spent even more time and energy with just three (Peter, James, and John).

OUT

In verses 17-19, Jesus took His disciples and then ministered to the world. He came for a purpose, and a big part of that purpose was to reach people who were lost and hurting. He prioritized His life and schedule so He could regularly be present with them, encouraging them and meeting their needs.

These three dimensions give us a framework from Jesus' life to evaluate our own growth. As we navigate this Micro Group, we'll periodically evaluate using the tool on the next page.

UP | IN | OUT EVALUATION TOOL

*Use this tool in Weeks 2, 15, and 26.

Take some time to evaluate yourself and ask everyone in your group to do the same as you consider the three dimensions.

Ask everyone to rate where they are personally right now in each of the three areas—UP, IN, and OUT—using the questions below as a guide for reflection. (Rate categories as a whole, not individual questions: Low = 1, High = 10) Record the results for your group using the scorecard below. This will give you an individual and collective pulse for where your group is at.

As you move through your Micro Group, it will help to see where you could place extra attention to look more like Jesus. For example, perhaps your group is collectively low in the dimension of “OUT.” You’re now more aware of an area God might be asking you to grow and obey. Press into that! Remember that Jesus balanced all these dimensions so well, and He’s our ultimate example.

During your evaluation, consider the following questions.

UP:

- Do I make space daily for prayer and Scripture?
- Am I holding back areas of my life I need to surrender, or do I have unconfessed sin?
- Do I often have clarity on areas where I need to obey Jesus?
- Do I worship with joy and regularly build rest/sabbath into my schedule?

IN:

- Are my relationships with friends healthy?
- Do I love and pray for the people in my community?
- Am I harboring any bitterness or resentment toward someone else?
- Am I intentionally discipling others and willing to share the areas where i’m learning and growing?
- Am I willing to engage in hard conversations?

OUT:

- Do I take risks?
- Am I generous with my time and money?
- Am I praying for non-believers in my life?, and do I share my faith with them?
- Do I look for ways to help meet the needs of others?

“UP” EXPERIENCE | PRAYER WHEEL

“UP” is the dimension that focuses on our personal relationship with Jesus, and one way we can connect with Him is through prayer.

The Prayer Wheel is a simple tool for practicing this. In just twelve steps, five minutes each, this cycle guides you through twelve ways the Bible teaches us to pray. At the end, you’ll have prayed for an hour.

Before you begin, grab your Bible, a notebook, and pen, and make sure your environment is set up to minimize distractions. Find a quiet place in/outside your home. Turn off devices or put them away. If needed, communicate with family or roommates about your plan, and ask them to help you experience this time distraction-free.

PRAISE

Start your time by praising God. Praise Him for things that are on your mind right now and for one thing He’s done in your life in the past week. Praise Him for His goodness to your family. For help getting started, Psalms 145 and 146 are great examples of praise.

WAIT

This is a time to be quiet in God’s presence and “be still before the Lord” (Psalm 37:7). Think of nothing but God the Father, His Son Jesus, and the Holy Spirit. You don’t need to express your thoughts in words. Just focus on Jesus and your love for Him.

CONFESS

Ask the Holy Spirit to show you anything in your life that might be displeasing to Him. Ask Him to point out wrong attitudes or actions that you haven’t confessed yet. Now confess them so that you might be cleansed. See 1 John 1:9.

READ THE WORD

Spend time reading in the Psalms, the prophets, and passages on prayer in the New Testament. Options include Psalm 103, Mark 11:20-25, and Luke 11:5-13.

PETITION

Make requests on behalf of yourself. See Hebrews 4:16.

INTERCESSION

Make requests on behalf of others. See Ephesians 1:16; Romans 10:1; 1 Timothy 2:1-4; Luke 6:28; Matthew 9:37-38.

PRAY THE WORD

Pray specific passages. Scriptural prayers as well as many psalms lend themselves well to this purpose. Here are some examples: Matthew 6:9-15, Colossians 1:9-12, Philippians 1:9-11, Psalm 119:38-46, Psalm 86.

THANK

Give thanks for things in your life, on behalf of your family, and on behalf of your church.

SING

Sing songs of praise and worship. See Psalm 59:16-17.

MEDITATE

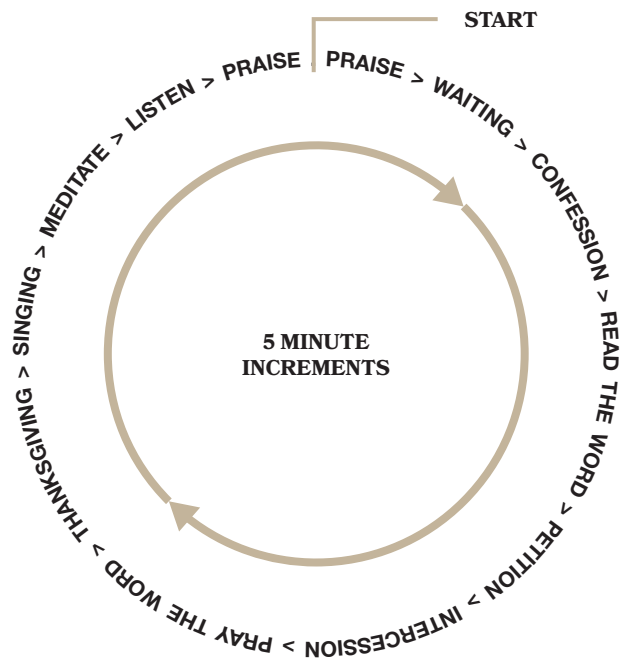

Reflect on a specific Scripture, a theme from Scripture, or on God and His works and character. Good options include Ephesians 3:14-21 or Exodus 34:6-7.

LISTEN

Ask God to speak to you. Have a pen and paper ready to record what He says. You can ask Him specific questions. Deliberately ask Him to reveal His will and strategies or plans to you.

PRAISE

Praise God for the time you've spent with Him. Praise Him for all of His attributes. Revelation 4:8-11 and Psalm 111 provide good examples of praise.

TAKE ACTION | For this week, carve out one hour when you can pray through this cycle. Share with your group when you plan to pray, and report back to each other next week.

“IN” TRAINING: PART 1

“IN” is the dimension that focuses on our disciple-making relationships. Who are we intentionally pouring into to help them grow to be like Jesus and obey Him? This may be your existing relationships, a future Micro Group, or other circles where you’re intentionally investing in others.

One important note is that becoming a mature disciple of Jesus doesn’t necessarily mean we have more knowledge of the Bible. While that’s a worthy goal and something we want to build our lives around, it’s not the end goal. A better measure of our discipleship is our obedience to what we know. Consider the following image...

MATURE DISCIPLE TRAINING

Person A has been in the church for a long time. He knows the books of the Bible and has been to many conferences and heard lots of good teaching. Some of it he has put into practice. Person B only has about six months in the church. She has to look in the index to find books and verses that are being studied. She doesn’t really understand the Bible all that well, but she’s doing her best to obey everything she understands Jesus is telling her.

Discuss the following prompts as a group. Leaders, you’ll find an answer guide on p. 31.

Discuss as a group: Who is a more mature disciple? Why?

READ JOHN 14:21-24.

Discuss as a group: What importance does Jesus attribute to obeying His commands?

Discuss as a group: What are the results/benefits/blessings of obedience?

READ MATTHEW 28:18-20

Discuss as a group: What do we learn from these verses about discipleship?

The way Jesus made disciples was by intentionally spending time with them, teaching them, and giving them opportunity to practice. Micro Groups are meant to help accomplish this. At this point in the process, your next step is as follows...

TAKE ACTION | Begin the first step in forming your first (or next) Micro Group.

- Pray specifically this week for God to bring to mind 5-10 others (of the same sex) that you might consider inviting into your future Micro Group.
- As you consider your list, look for those who are faithful, available, and teachable. Are they hungry to grow? Do they work well with you? As we say around here, are they humble and hungry? Think outside the scope of your close friends or people you know best. You never know who might accept the invitation, even if you don't know them well. One final note: don't say "no" or "yes" for people at this point. Simply pray through names and compile a list.
- Come back to group next week prepared to share your initial list.

“IN” TRAINING: PART 2

At this point in the process, you’re ready to move to the next phase of starting your own Micro Group. By now you’ve established a list of 5-10 names. Take another look at your list and pray over it. Ask God to give you clarity on who to invite first.

STEPS FOR INVITING

1. Pray and prioritize your list. (Remember, don’t say “no” for anyone. Let them make that call.)
2. Look at your schedule to find time blocks you can prioritize and protect to meet regularly. It may be the time you’re currently meeting with your group, or you may wish to offer more ideal blocks that might work for those you invite.
3. Reach out to the first 3-4 people and offer them an invitation. To do this, you’ll want to have an ICNU conversation and cast vision.
 - ICNU: This is simply calling out what you see in them. For example, you might say, “Sarah, I’ve been part of a unique group here at church that’s very intentional and is really helping me grow spiritually. I’m growing as a disciple of Jesus and being prepared to lead my own Micro Group in a month or two. I’d love to invite you to join. From what I’ve seen in you, there’s a real hunger to grow, and you possess a teachable spirit. I really believe that you’ll grow more than ever from an experience like this! I’d love to have you join!”
 - You’ll also want to include logistical information, like when your group might meet (consider giving them a few options), that it meets weekly, the importance of making it a priority, and that it’s a one-year endeavor (6 months with you and then they’ll be trained to eventually lead their own).
 - Tip: Consider sending them an email with the above language and details. Also include the Micro Group guide and make note of the member agreement. Ask them to review and let them know you’ll call them in a few days to discuss further (or set up a time to meet face to face).

TAKE ACTION | Offer invites to your first invitees this week.

If they say “no” or the schedule doesn’t work, continue to move down your list until your group is formed. Set a start date near the end of your current group or shortly thereafter. Take a few minutes now in your group to practice inviting others.

“OUT” TRAINING: PART 1

“OUT” is the dimension that focuses on ministering to others, helping those in need, and sharing the hope we have in Jesus. This training focuses on writing and sharing your personal testimony.

WRITING YOUR TESTIMONY

Sharing your personal testimony of meeting Jesus, receiving the gift of salvation, and being reconciled to God is a spiritual discipline most Christians can always grow in. As part of a Micro Group, we want you to be equipped for each opportunity to share your testimony. We want you to regularly pray for eyes to see these opportunities and to be obedient in actually sharing your story with those you interact with.

TAKE ACTION

Before next week’s meeting, take time to write a draft of your own testimony that you could share with someone in 1 minute. This is not your whole life journey, rather the primary elements that would relate to others and draw them in to want to hear more of your story. Arrive prepared to share what you’ve written with the group and receive feedback. Below is a guide on how to get started.

LIFE BEFORE MEETING JESUS

THE GOSPEL | God created the world and everything in it and made people to be in a perfect relationship with Him. When Adam and Eve were deceived and disobeyed God in the garden, the perfect relationship between God and His people was broken. The result was sin and separation from God.

YOUR TURN | Begin by talking about what your life was like before God got your attention and made your faith personal. (See Paul’s example in Acts 22:3-5.) Write this in in 1-2 sentences. Here’s an example: "There was a time in my life when I didn't really care much about my body. I used to drink socially and it ended up becoming a big issue for me that ultimately broke a few important relationships in my life."

Guiding Questions

- What were you invested in that continued to leave you feeling empty?
- What were your emotions in your day-to-day life?
- What did you feel was lacking in your life?
- Where were you spiritually?

MEETING JESUS

THE GOSPEL | God loved us so much that He sent His only Son, Jesus, to die for our sins so that our relationship with Him could be restored. Jesus came to earth, lived a sinless life, and died on a cross as punishment for our sins. This grace and forgiveness is offered to everyone as a free gift, and we can’t do anything to earn it.

When you repent of your sin, put your faith in Jesus, believing that He has done everything sufficient for your salvation, you receive new life in Christ.

YOUR TURN | Describe the moment when God got a hold of you and your relationship with Jesus became real and personal. (See Paul's example in Acts 22:6-13.) Write this in 1-2 sentences. Here's an example: " To be honest, I finally realized I was broken and couldn't do it on my own. I went back to church out of desperation and Jesus changed my life!"

Guiding Questions

- When/how did you finally understand you were separate from God?
- What made you realize you needed God in your life?
- How did you actually invite Jesus into your life?
- Was anyone else prominently involved in you becoming a Christian?

LIFE AFTER MEETING JESUS

THE GOSPEL | After receiving salvation, Jesus calls us to obedience. You've been made new and live with the Holy Spirit's power guiding you toward growth in Christlikeness. One way the Bible teaches us to obey is by being baptized after making the decision to follow Jesus.

YOUR TURN | Share how your life is different since you started your relationship with Jesus. (See Paul's example in Acts 22:14-16.) Write this in 1-2 sentences. Here's an example: "I experienced freedom and forgiveness..." Finish with this question that can help keep the conversation going: "I wonder do you have a story like that?"

Guiding Questions

- How has Jesus changed your character, the way you view the world, and how you relate to other people?
- How has His forgiveness impacted you?
- How have your thoughts, attitudes, and emotions changed?
- What has changed in your relationships with others?

“OUT” TRAINING: PART 2

HOW TO SHARE YOUR TESTIMONY

TESTIMONY PROMPTS | As you're speaking with someone, certain questions and topics can lead you toward an opportunity to share your testimony. These show someone you care about them as a person, and they also open the door for a spiritual conversation.

- When someone asks how you're doing or what's new, you can take the opportunity to be vulnerable about your life in a way that highlights your faith.
- When someone expresses hopefulness (or something great in their life).
- When someone expresses hopelessness (or a struggle in their life).
- Asking: "How are you really doing in life, physically and spiritually."
- Asking, "What are you looking forward to most in the next season of your life?"

Discuss with your group:

Help each group member begin to think through the likely contexts in which they might share their 1 minute testimony. Trust the Holy Spirit to speak through you as you ask and look for these opportunities. Take a little time to share some examples with one another now.

PRACTICE SHARING YOUR TESTIMONY

Last week you worked on writing out your 1 minute testimony. Now have each member choose a likely scenario and have a mock conversation where you can insert your 1 minute testimony. Take turns and give some helpful feedback to each other

TAKE ACTION

Before next week's meeting, take a bold step towards sharing your testimony. Tell your group what you intend to do and be ready next week to share how it went. Here are a few suggested action steps:

- Pray specifically for opportunity to share your testimony at/with one of your places/faces.
- Pray for courage to reach out to someone on your mind and heart that you want to reach out to.
- Read Colossians 4:2-6 over your group now and pray for boldness to share hope with others THIS week!

WHAT'S NEXT?

At this point, your Micro Group should be ready to multiply! Our hope and prayer is that you've each taken significant steps in your spiritual growth, learning to obey God's voice and putting it into practice. As you've done this, you should be seeing the fruit of discipleship, which is reflected in living a life that's above reproach, imitating Jesus by loving the Father, discipling others, and reaching out to the world around you. For some, you might have taken that important step of baptism, shared your faith for the first time, or built a life of devotion that you didn't have before. Celebrate your growth!

You should be more equipped to lead and disciple others in the things you've learned. While we never truly feel ready (we know the disciples sure didn't!), always be willing to step into areas of challenge and risk that will bring about more growth.

That being said, there are times when some of you might not be ready to branch out on your own just yet. If so, consider jumping back in with your leader for another session or pair up with another member to start a group together. One note of caution is to be careful not to defer starting a group until some unspecified time in the future. For most of us, we tend to talk ourselves out of following through on our best intentions.

As you move into your next round of Micro Group, you may wish to repeat the same Scripture roadmap (see p. 18). If you want to explore other books in our Epistle–Old Testament–Gospel set, consider the additional roadmaps on the following page.

No matter what, keep celebrating, keep growing, and keep multiplying!

- There are disciples to be made everywhere.
- We make disciples by going, teaching them to obey Jesus, and baptizing.
