

Why groups?

1. What is discipleship?
2. What are the main goals of groups?
3. As a leader, why is it important to live a godly life?

Creating the environment

1. Why is hospitality an important part of discipling others?
2. Which of the four tips do you feel is a strength of yours? Which one is not? How can the group help you?

Leading the discussion

1. What two questions should you work toward answering together each meeting?
2. List three possible positive outcomes that could come from engaging with these questions.

Tackling difficult topics

1. Why is it important to check your agenda at the door when you have a strong opinion about something that doesn't have a clear, biblical truth to be applied?
2. What phrases can you use to steer an unhealthy conversation in a better direction?
3. If someone asks a question you don't have an answer for, how should you respond?

Successful multiplication

1. Why is multiplying your group so important?
2. What is the recommended timeline for your group to multiply and how could you get there?
3. What are the different ways that your group can multiply?

Ongoing administration

1. How does utilizing the Group Leader Toolbox benefit both the group leader and the discipleship team?